

UN/CEFACT Geneva Forum

Draft Agenda for Enhancing Traceability and Transparency of Sustainable Value Chains in the Garment and Footwear Sector

Thursday April 4th 2019, Palais des Nations - Geneva

Thursday 4 April 2019	9:30-10:30	1. Opening of the Meeting and update on project progress Update on call for expression of interest, composition of experts groups, and project governance
	11:00-12:30	Mr. Frans van Diepen - UN/CEFACT Domain Coordinator, The Netherlands Ms. Maria Teresa Pisani - UNECE Secretariat Mr. Madison Wilcox – Trade4SD, ITC
	14:00-15:30	2. Development of policy recommendation on traceability and transparency for sustainable value chains
	16:00-17:30	Ms. Maria Teresa Pisani - UNECE Secretariat (moderator) Discussion on vision and objectives of the transparency and traceability system, implementation phases, business process analysis of the industry value chain, distribution of costs and benefits among stakeholders, rules for collaboration, rules for data exchange and confidentiality, including on sustainability risks, data exchange standards, measurement of performance, among other elements.
		3. Mapping of business processes and core data for due diligence in garment and footwear value chains Mr. Frans van Diepen - UN/CEFACT Domain Coordinator, The Netherlands (moderator)
		Mapping of the business processes in the garment and footwear value chains, and defining the set of minimum core data to be exchanged along the value chain, to be included for instance, in a blockchain smart contract, including data related to the purchase order and information to enable due diligence.
		4. Blockchain for traceability of sustainable value chains – project pilot Mr. Heinz Weller - Hugo Boss (moderator)
	Follow-up to the project meeting at the OECD Due Diligence Forum to brainstorm on the potential of blockchain applications for due diligence in value chains in the garment and footwear sector.
	5. Plan of action for project implementation Mr. Frans van Diepen - UN/CEFACT Domain Coordinator, The Netherlands (moderator) Discussion on implementation plan for project activities, with key project activities milestones, and attributions of roles and responsibilities.
	6. Contributions to the upcoming meetings and events Copenhagen Global Fashion Summit (May 2019 Copenhagen) EU Development Days (June 2019 Brussels) ITC Sustainable Trade Forum (Sept 2019 Geneva) UN/CEFACT Forum (October 2019 Athens ) 1st Project Policy Dialogue meeting (November 2019 Milan) OECD Due Diligence Forum (February 2020 Paris)
	7. Closing of the Meeting	