

Questionnaire related to the UN/CEFACT project on:

"Background research on the use of international standards in public procurement and e-procurement systems"

Introduction

Public e-procurement is the use of electronic means for publishing, processing, exchanging and storing all the information related to institutional purchases in public organizations.

Question 1: Please state the institution as well as country/geographical area for which you are responding.

The Ministry of Economic Development and Trade of Ukraine
Public Procurement Regulation Department

Question 2: Is there a legal/regulatory framework in place for public e-procurement?

No
Yes, for central government entities (state level)	✓
Yes, for local government entities (regions and municipalities)	✓

Question 3: Are you aware of initiatives related to electronic message exchange in public procurement and e-procurement in your country?

No
Yes

If yes, please specify a contact point that may be approached for further information:

Oleksandr Starodubtsev, Head of Public Procurement
Regulation Department, MEDT.

Question 4: Is there a mandatory use of electronic message exchange for any of the steps in these processes?

No
Yes, for publication of public procurement opportunities	✓
Yes, for giving access to documents specifying the products/services needed (request for quote)	✓
Yes, for submission of tender documents	✓
Yes, for reporting on the execution/performance within an established contract	✓
Yes, for the ordering and delivery process
Yes, for invoicing

Question 5: Does this initiative make use of an internationally recognized standards for message content and structure?

No
No, locally developed standards only
Yes	✓

If yes, please specify:

EU and Ukraine Association Agreement
WTO Agreement on public procurement (GPA)

Question 6: Would you, or someone from your country, be prepared to give a presentation on your countries experience related to public e-procurement at one of the future UN/CEFACT Forum (*) meetings?

No
Yes	✓

If yes, please specify a contact point that may be approached for further information:

The representative of Public Procurement Regulation Department, the Ministry of Economic Development and Trade of Ukraine

(*)

The 28th UN/CEFACT Forum will take place on 26 - 30 September 2016 in Bangkok, Thailand:
www.unece.org/.../un...uncefact/meetings-and-events.html